◆ Thursday, February 1

Black History Month Worship Service

Miller Chapel 7:00 p.m.

Black History Month opens with a worship service led by Dr. Cain Hope Felder, professor of New Testament at Howard Divinity School. Dr. Felder was formerly a member of the PTS faculty. He will speak on the topic "African Presence in the Bible and Its Multicultural Significance: A Continuing Challenge for the Church Today." The featured choir will be the newly organized PTS Gospel Chorus, under the direction of Myesha Hamm. The service is sponsored by the Association of Black Seminarians.

Contact: Jacqueline Glass
Phone: 919-0032

◆ Friday–Saturday, February 2–3

Class Steward Workshop on Campus

Alumni/ae representatives from the graduating classes of the last fifty years will be on campus for a fund-raising workshop. These class stewards work with their classmates to generate gifts to the annual Alumni/ae Roll Call. All Roll Call gifts are designated for student scholarship aid. Alumni/ae helping students is a Princeton tradition. The workshop is designed to inform the stewards about the Seminary today and to involve them firsthand in the life of the campus. Many of these alumni/ae are returning to Princeton for the first time since graduation. They are committed to the Roll Call because they want to assist today's students. They would welcome the opportunity to get to know current students on an individual basis. Please extend a gracious welcome to them.

◆ Cantate Domino Choir Rehearsal Schedule

Rehearsals will be in the Gambrell Room (upstairs, Scheide Hall); your music will be there. The schedule for the first week of class is:

Monday, January 29 6:30–8:30 p.m.
Tuesday, January 30 6:30–8:30 p.m.
Wednesday, January 31 4:00–5:30 p.m.

◆ Adult Children of Alcoholics Wellness and Support Group

Alcoholism has a profound influence on the lives of families. It effects our relationships, our identities, and our vocations. Through an exploration of the adult children of alcoholic (ACOA)'s characteristics and challenges, we can gain a greater knowledge and understanding of what it means to come from this environment and how this legacy impacts our ministry.

The Office of Student Counseling invites you to join this second-semester support group. Led by the Rev. Lauren J. McFeaters, interim associate pastor at the First Presbyterian Church of Ewing, New Jersey, and a fellow in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, this group will meet on Wednesdays from 3:30–5:00 p.m. on campus. Interested individuals should contact Carol Belles in the Chapel Office. Enrollment is limited.

◆ Thank You for Donating to the Blood Drive

A heartfelt thank you to all who donated at our fall blood drive. Fifty donors participated. We apologize for the lengthy wait for donating. The Red Cross was shorthanded that day and was unable to keep up with the number of donors. We will make every effort to ensure that this will not happen again. Please don't be discouraged; the Red Cross continues to need your support. Please plan to attend our next blood drive in April.

◆ Adult Children of Alcoholics Wellness and Support Group

Alcoholism has a profound influence on the lives of families. It effects our relationships, our identities, and our vocations. Through an exploration of the adult children of alcoholic (ACOA)'s characteristics and challenges, we can gain a greater knowledge and understanding of what it means to come from this environment and how this legacy affects our ministry.

The Office of Student Counseling invites you to join this second-semester support group. Led by the Rev. Lauren J. McFeaters, interim associate pastor at the First Presbyterian Church of Ewing, New Jersey, and a fellow in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, this group will meet on Wednesdays from 3:30–5:00 p.m. on campus. Interested individuals should contact Carol Belles in the Chapel Office. Enrollment is limited.

◆ Adult Children of Alcoholics Wellness and Support Group
Alcoholism has a profound influence on the lives of families. It effects our relationships, our identities, and our vocations. Through an exploration of the adult children of alcoholic (ACOA)'s characteristics and challenges, we can gain a greater knowledge and understanding of what it means to come from this environment and how this legacy affects our ministry.

The Office of Student Counseling invites you to join this second-semester support group. Led by the Rev. Lauren J. McFeaters, interim associate pastor at the First Presbyterian Church of Ewing, New Jersey, and a fellow in the American Association of Pastoral Counselors, this group will meet on Wednesdays from 3:30–5:00 p.m. on campus. Interested individuals should contact Carol Belles in the Chapel Office. Enrollment is limited.

This Week's ❖ Events

◆ Monday, February 19
Japanese Internment Commemoration
Miller Chapel 10:00 a.m.
(commemoration service)
Main Lounge 12:40–1:30 p.m.
(presentation)

In 1942, upon the signing of Executive Order 9066 by President Franklin Roosevelt, more than 120,000 Japanese Americans were deported to concentration camps, a majority of whom were American-born citizens of the United States. The office of the Asian American Program is sponsoring this chapel service and a lecture presentation to commemorate this tragic event. All are invited to attend the 10:00 a.m. chapel service and the 12:40 p.m. presentation, both of which will be led by the Rev. Steve Yamaguchi (PTS Class of '88), pastor of Grace Presbyterian Church in Long Beach, California.

◆ Monday, February 19
Poetry for Palestinians—A Celebration
Main Lounge 7:00 p.m.

This event will feature the poetry of Suheir Hammad. Hammad was born in Jordan to Palestinian refugee parents; her family moved to Beirut and then eventually to Brooklyn, leaving one war-torn part of the world for another. Her poetry tells of exile, of urban America, and of being a woman of color in a racist society. She has published a collection of poetry titled Born Palestinian, Born Black (Harlem River Press, 1996).

This event is sponsored by The Women's Center, The Association of Black Seminarians, the Religion and Society Committee (Princeton Theological Seminary), and The Third World Center (Princeton University).

◆ Monday, February 19
Artist Reception—Lynda Juel
Erdman Gallery 7:30 p.m.

The Princeton community is invited to a celebratory reception for Lynda Juel in honor of her exhibit titled "Reflections," which is showing from February 12–March 30. Juel is an avant-garde sculptor who works with aluminum cans and mesh wire toward what she calls "labor-intensive women's work." The sculptures focus on domestic imagery—brooms and vacuums, empty dresses and shoes—and reflect on the realities of everyday life through metaphor and irony, playing in the space between light and dark. Please come to view her sculpture of domestic imagery and to enjoy refreshments and stimulating conversation.

◆ Traffic and Parking Changes for the Main Campus/Quad Area

With the completion of the Miller Chapel/Scheide building project, there are some announcements regarding traffic flow and parking:

1. Traffic and parking will revert to its previous pattern on Monday, February 19;
2. Please comply with all signage for traffic and parking;
3. Security will assist during this reversion and will be responsible for enforcement of all traffic/parking regulations;
4. Parking in the temporary lot (entrance off College Road and in front of Brown Hall) is for official Seminary vehicles, staff, and students vehicles with red parking permits only;
5. Parking in the chapel lot is reserved for residents of 25, 27, 29, and 31 Alexander Street and designated staff only;
6. The area from Miller Chapel past Scheide Hall to the corner is a No Parking area.

Everyone is urged to drive slowly and carefully during this reacquaintance period with the former traffic pattern. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

If you have questions, please call the Facilities Office.

Phone: 497-7778

◆ Whiteley Gym—User's Policy

The Whiteley Gym is not available to non-Seminary people, unless the person(s) is a guest of, and in the company of, a member of the Seminary community. Please do not inform friends, members of your church or youth group, or any others that they can use the gym without your being there with them.

Security frequently finds people in the weight room or on the basketball court who think they have the right to be there (or have been told they can use the gym) because of their acquaintance with someone at the Seminary. This is not the case, and security is instructed to escort non-Seminary people off the premises under these circumstances. Please do not embarrass your friends and acquaintances by putting them in this situation. Members of the Seminary community should be prepared to show their Seminary ID card when asked by security or the gym manager. This is the only way they can determine if a person is in the gym facility legitimately.

For security, liability, and insurance reasons and to ensure availability of the gym for the Seminary community, security will continue to enforce this policy. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation in this matter.

◆ Wednesday, March 28
Thriving in Ministry
Erdman Hall, Cooper Conference Room 3:30–9:00 p.m.
M.Div. and dual-degree seniors and their spouses are invited by the Office of Student Affairs to attend this half-day seminar that addresses many of the practical concerns relevant as you enter the ministry. Two panel discussions, "First-year Surprises" and "Balancing Priorities," will be presented by recent graduates of Princeton Seminary who are currently serving congregations. Four workshops will be offered: Planning and Performing Funerals by Nancy Conklin; Planning and Performing Weddings by Julie Coston; Leading the Board by Brian Ellison; and Understanding Church Finances by Allan Johnson-Taylor. Return the registration form in the brochure provided by the Chapel Office as soon as possible.

◆ Friday and Saturday, March 30 and 31
Theologiggle
Mackay Auditorium 8:00 p.m. each night
Theologiggle is a chance to laugh at the absurdity of seminary life and to witness really bad impersonations of professors. Like a loincloth that clings to one's loins, Theologiggle has a way of presenting the school's more embarrassing aspects in a frank but loving manner. This event is sponsored by the Stewardship Committee.

◆ Monday, April 2
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Lecture "Was Martin Luther King Jr. a Christian, Or Is He in Hell Right Now?"
Miller Chapel 7:30 p.m.
Dr. Michael Eric Dyson, lecturer, is the Ida B. Wells-Barnett University Professor, and professor of religious studies, at DePaul University. A professor, scholar, and ordained Baptist minister, Dyson has risen to a position of prominence and visibility. He has been called "one of the youngest stars in the firmament of black intellectuals" and lauded as "one of the most important voices in his generation." The Seminary faculty's Black Concerns Council established this annual lectureship to honor Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the principles he lived and died for.

though students may apply for both languages), general background in the language (list of relevant courses, etc.), past teaching experience, and any other factors that might bear on the student's general qualifications for these positions. Students with past teaching experience, of whatever kind, are especially encouraged to apply. All letters of application should be sent (via email or campus mail) to Professor Chip Dobbs-Allsopp and should be received no later than March 29, 2001.

Contact: Chip Dobbs-Allsopp
Email: chip.dobbs-allsopp@ptsem.edu

◆ Marriage Enrichment Groups

Groups are forming that will meet weekly for five weeks during the spring semester. Led by Jeff and Lynn O'Grady, these marriage enrichment groups are small groups of caring couples who meet regularly to provide nurture, support, and encouragement for one another in the growth and enrichment of their marriage relationships. Meetings will be on March 26, April 2, 9, 16, and 23 from 7:00–9:00 p.m. in the Main Lounge. Register in the Chapel Office.

◆ Student Projects Wanted for Media Awards Contest

Submit your video, web design, or PowerPoint project to the Student Media Awards. There are two great categories in which to enter your project: Educational or Devotional. The grand prize in each category is a Palm IIIxe!

Don't have a project to submit? Come to the Media Lab and create a two-to-four-minute video devotional based around a favorite passage, psalm, or hymn. Or create a study web site to share with classmates—post your class notes, web links, and discussion points. Think about the possibility for projects that can be used in conjunction with your spring classes. You bring the scholarship and creativity; we will train you and give you access to state-of-the-art resources.

After the winners are announced on Thursday, April 26, there will be a free showing of the film Contact, starring Jodie Foster, at 6:45 p.m. in Stuart 6. A discussion of the film and the interplay between theology and technology will follow. For more information or to request an appointment in the Media Lab, contact Pam Stankiewicz. This contest is sponsored by the Media Lab and Educational Media.

◆ Fellowships and Prizes

Senior Class Fellowships

Seniors, are you writing a senior thesis for course credit? If so, and if you were in residence as a middler, you are invited to enter your thesis in competition for a Senior Class Fellowship for the pursuit of advanced study in Old Testament, New Testament, in the Departments of History, Theology, and Practical Theology, or in the program in Religion and Society. Each Fellowship carries an honorarium of $3,000.

Senior and Middler Prizes

The Seminary annually awards two Robert L. Maitland Prizes of $1,000 each: one for the best exegesis of a passage of the New Testament and one for the best essay on an assigned subject in English Bible. The assigned exegesis passage for 2000–2001 must be related to "Apocalyptic Hope." The English Bible topic for 2000–2001 is: "Jesus Christ and the Gospel."

The John Finley McLaren Prize in Biblical Theology

A sum of $500 is awarded annually for the best essay on an assigned subject in biblical theology. The subject for 2000–2001 is: "The Will of God." For the thesis, please send a letter to the Office of Academic Affairs (126 Administration Building) no later than Monday, April 2 of your intention to enter a thesis and the area in which it is to be considered. Monday, April 2 is also the submission deadline for the Maitland and McLaren Prizes. A copy of the thesis must be turned in to the Office of Academic Affairs by noon on the last day of classes, Friday, April 27. For more information see the current issue of the General Catalogue, pages 184–186, and 194.

◆ Student Projects Wanted for Media Awards Contest

Submit your video, web design, or PowerPoint project to the Student Media Awards. There are two great categories in which to enter your project: Educational or Devotional. The grand prize in each category is a Palm IIIxe!

Don't have a project to submit? Come to the Media Lab and create a two-to-four-minute video devotional based around a favorite passage, psalm, or hymn. Or create a study web site to share with classmates—post your class notes, web links, and discussion points. Think about the possibility for projects that can be used in conjunction with your spring classes. You bring the scholarship and creativity; we will train you and give you access to state-of-the-art resources.

After the winners are announced on Thursday, April 26, there will be a free showing of the film Contact, starring Jodie Foster, at 6:45 p.m. in Stuart 6. A discussion of the film and the interplay between theology and technology will follow. For more information or to request an appointment in the Media Lab, contact Pam Stankiewicz. This contest is sponsored by the Media Lab and Educational Media.

◆ Fellowships and Prizes

Senior Class Fellowships

Seniors, are you writing a senior thesis for course credit? If so, and if you were in residence as a middler, you are invited to enter your thesis in competition for a Senior Class Fellowship for the pursuit of advanced study in Old Testament, New Testament, in the Departments of History, Theology, and Practical Theology, or in the program in Religion and Society. Each Fellowship carries an honorarium of $3,000.

Senior and Middler Prizes

The Seminary annually awards two Robert L. Maitland Prizes of $1,000 each: one for the best exegesis of a passage of the New Testament and one for the best essay on an assigned subject in English Bible. The assigned exegesis passage for 2000–2001 must be related to "Apocalyptic Hope." The English Bible topic for 2000–2001 is: "Jesus Christ and the Gospel."

The John Finley McLaren Prize in Biblical Theology

A sum of $500 is awarded annually for the best essay on an assigned subject in biblical theology. The subject for 2000–2001 is: "The Will of God." For the thesis, please send a letter to the Office of

Publishing Day

The acquisitions editors from Upper Room and Geneva Press will be on campus to talk to students interested in publishing and production of non-print resources in the area of youth ministry and related fields. They are coming a) to "scout" potential writers and creative resources developers in areas related to youth and the church, and b) to advise students interested in pursing writing as part of their pastoral ministries.

If you would like to meet with them, please call the School of Christian Education (497-7910) or email Kenda Dean to set up an appointment. A draft of a project proposal, a writing sample, or a paragraph summarizing your writing would be helpful to bring with you to the meeting (but they'll meet with you even if you don't have these things).

Festival for Fitness Healing Service
Miller Chapel 10:00–10:30 a.m.

Christ in his ministry brought and still brings healing to people in body, mind, and spirit. Continuing in the tradition of Christ's disciples who performed similar ministries, many denominations in recent decades have rediscovered the value of public services of healing.

In following the church's historical tradition of healing services, we will observe the prayers of faith, the laying on of hands, and the anointing with oil at a service to be held as part of the Festival for Fitness. This event is sponsored by the Special Services Committee of the Chapel Council.

◆ Student Projects Wanted for Media Awards Contest

Submit your video, web design, or PowerPoint project to the Student Media Awards. There are two great categories in which to enter your project: Educational or Devotional. The grand prize in each category is a Palm IIIxe!

Don't have a project to submit? Come to the Media Lab and create a two-to-four-minute video devotional based around a favorite passage, psalm, or hymn. Or create a study web site to share with classmates—post your class notes, web links, and discussion points. Think about the possibility for projects that can be used in conjunction with your spring classes. You bring the scholarship and creativity; we will train you and give you access to state-of-the-art resources.

After the winners are announced on Thursday, April 26, there will be a free showing of the film Contact, starring Jodie Foster, at 6:45 p.m. in Stuart 6. A discussion of the film and the interplay between theology and technology will follow. For more information or to request an appointment in the Media Lab, contact Pam Stankiewicz. This contest is sponsored by the Media Lab and Educational Media.

Publishing Day

The acquisitions editors from Upper Room and Geneva Press will be on campus to talk to students interested in publishing and production of non-print resources in the area of youth ministry and related fields. They are coming a) to "scout" potential writers and creative resources developers in areas related to youth and the church, and b) to advise students interested in pursing writing as part of their pastoral ministries.

If you would like to meet with them, please call the School of Christian Education (497-7910) or email Kenda Dean to set up an appointment. A draft of a project proposal, a writing sample, or a paragraph summarizing your writing would be helpful to bring with you to the meeting (but they'll meet with you even if you don't have these things).

This Week's ❖ Events

◆ Monday–Friday, April 16–20
Festival for Fitness

"Walking Life's Labyrinth: From Stress to Strength" is the theme of this year's Festival for Fitness week. Events include:

Monday, lunchtime conversation, Main Lounge, 1:00 p.m.: "Christian Vocation in Sickness and in Health," Professor Nancy Duff

Monday, Main Lounge, 4:15–5:15 p.m.: Introductory Yoga Class (wear loose clothes and bring a beach towel)

Tuesday, lunchtime conversation, Main Lounge, 12:45 p.m.: "What's New in Nutrition?" Daniel Jass, M.D., preventative medicine

Tuesday evening panel, Main Lounge, 6:30–8:00 p.m.: "Minimizing Financial Stress" (dessert and childcare provided)

Wednesday, Main Lounge, 10:30 a.m.–3:00 p.m.: Health Fair featuring massage therapists, blood pressure screenings, stress level inventories, financial planning, attention deficit disorder, spiritual direction, chiropractic care, natural food samples, door prizes, and much more. Childcare provided from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Wednesday, Mackay Auditorium, 10:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.: There will be a Labyrinth Prayer Walk in the Mackay Auditorium. It is believed that labyrinths have been used as a spiritual tool since as early as 2500 BCE in many unrelated cultures around the world. In the Middle Ages, mystic Christians used the labyrinths in prayer and meditation, symbolizing journeys of faith or soul pilgrimages. They were thought to bring illumination and healing. Christians around the world are beginning to rediscover this spiritual tool. Please join us for this one-day opportunity and discover the labyrinth for yourself.

Thursday, Miller Chapel, 10:00 a.m.: Service of Healing

Thursday, lunchtime conversation, Main Lounge, 12:45 p.m.: "Strategies for Stressed Seminarians and Clergy," Peter Stimpson, director of Trinity Counseling Service

Thursday dinner, Mackay Dining Hall, 5:30–6:30 p.m.: low-stress dinner in dining hall for entire community, with candlelight and live jazz

Friday, lunchtime conversation, Women's Center, 12:45 p.m.: "Stress Management for Women in Transition," Dr. Melinda Contreras-Byrd, psychologist and PTS alumna, Women's Center

Contact the Chapel Office to sign up for a private consultation during the health fair with an Attention Deficit Disorder specialist, a financial planner, or a spiritual director.

◆ Wednesday, April 18
Erdman Gallery Talk—Kathleen Nicastro, "Preparing the Light"
Erdman Gallery 4:30–5:30 p.m.
The Seminary community is invited to this gallery talk by Kathleen Nicastro, an artist and PTS staff member whose art, under the title "Preparing the Light," is on display in the Erdman Gallery through May 29. Her talk will explore the subject of her stained glass, paintings, and sculpture—the theme of light in Scripture and in the life of faith. The community is invited to a reception with refreshments following the gallery talk.

◆ Thursday, April 19
Festival for Fitness Healing Service
Miller Chapel 10:00–10:30 a.m.
Christ in his ministry brought and still brings healing to people in body, mind, and spirit. Continuing in the tradition of Christ's disciples who performed similar ministries, many denominations in recent decades have rediscovered the value of public services of healing.

In following the church's historical tradition of healing services, we will observe the prayers of faith, the laying on of hands, and the anointing with oil at a service to be held as part of the Festival for Fitness. This event is sponsored by the Special Services Committee of the Chapel Council.

General ❖ Notices

◆ Facilities Is Hiring
The Facilities Office is looking for Seminary students and/or spouses to work on its staff from mid-May through Labor Day. Positions are available in the following areas: grounds work (must wear steel-tipped boots); custodial/apartment preparation in CRW (must wear steel-tipped boots); and for the Security phones. The Security phone position requires the ability to speak clearly, to enunciate well, and to communicate effectively with the Seminary community and with Security officers via radio. If you are interested in any of these positions, stop by the Facilities Office to fill out an application.
Contact: Susan Molloy
Phone: 497-7778

◆ Spring Fertilizer Application

Weather permitting, at the end of April the grounds staff will fertilize and apply weed and pest controls to the main campus, the Tennent campus, and the CRW grounds. Small yellow flags will be placed on all treated areas. Please keep children and pets safely away from the machinery during the application process. Residents should keep traffic on the lawns to a minimum for a few days following the application in order to allow the treatment to work.

Contact: David N. Poinsett
Phone: 497-7778

◆ Luce Library Exhibit

The Luce Library presents an exhibit in Exhibit Hall on Dietrich Bonhoeffer and the Slossenburg concentration camp, where Bonhoeffer was imprisoned. It is open during library hours and free to the public.

◆ Monday, May 7
"The Voice of the Waldensians in Modern Christianity"
Main Lounge 6:30 p.m.

The Seminary community is invited to hear the Reverend Hugo Armand Pilon, moderator of the Waldensian Church in Latin America (Argentina and Uruguay), speak on "The Voice of the Waldensians in Modern Christianity." The Waldensian Church was founded in the late 1100s in southern France and was considered by many the "Mother of the Reformation." More than 800 years later, the Waldensian Church continues to faithfully witness to the presence of Jesus in Italy, Argentina, and Uruguay. For more information, contact the Reverends Ruth and Edward Santana-Grace, executive codirectors of The American Waldensian Society in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, or Debora Bonnes, a Waldensian student studying at PTS.

General ❖ Notices

◆ Facilities Is Hiring

The Facilities Office is looking for Seminary students and/or spouses to work on its staff from mid-May through Labor Day. Positions are available in the following areas: grounds work (must wear steel-tipped boots); custodial/apartment preparation in CRW (must wear steel-tipped boots); and for the Security phones. The Security phone position requires the ability to speak clearly, to enunciate well, and to communicate effectively with the Seminary community and with Security officers via radio. If you are interested in any of these positions, stop by the Facilities Office to fill out an application.

Contact: Susan Molloy
Phone: 497-7778

◆ Spring Fertilizer Application

Weather permitting, at the end of April the grounds staff will fertilize and apply weed and pest controls to the main campus, the Tennent campus, and the CRW grounds. Small yellow flags will be placed on all treated areas. Please keep children and pets safely away from the machinery during the application process. Residents should keep traffic on the lawns to a minimum for a few days following the application in order to allow the treatment to work.

◆ Youth Ministry Bridges Program

Seniors, are you being called to a pastorate that includes some youth ministry responsibility? If so, you might be a candidate for the Bridges 2001 Pastors Program, which will offer new pastors two years of continuing education and support in the company of peers and mentors. Bridges will provide (and fund!) opportunities for theological reflection about the transition into ordained ministry, ministry with youth, and healthy pastoral practices. Please call or email Leslie Dobbs-Allsopp, Bridges project coordinator, for more details.
